

جامعة دار الحكمة
DAR AL-HEKMA UNIVERSITY

Biography of Dr. Abeer Al Doghaither

Dr. Abeer Al Doghaither is the President of Dar al-Hekma University and previously the Provost and the Director of the General Education Department at Dar Al-Hekma University in Jeddah, Saudi Arabia. Dr. Aldoghaither has been working in the academia for nearly 12 years.

Dr. Al Doghaither's research area of interest is "Inverse Problems for Fractional Partial Differential Equations". She published several research papers in high-quality journals and participated in several international conferences. In 2019, Al Doghither was nominated for the Dar Al-Hekma Award for Outstanding Performance.

Dr. Al Doghaither is known for her commitment to strengthening the quality of teaching and learning with a focus on expanding the faculty research output and widening community partnerships.

Dr. Al Doghaither received her Bachelor's degree in Mathematics with first honor from King Abdulaziz University, Jeddah, Saudi Arabia, her Master's degree in Mathematics from The George Washington University, Washington, DC, USA and her Ph.D. in Applied Mathematics and Computational Science from King Abdullah University of Science and Technology (KAUST), Thuwal, Saudi Arabia.