

General Lectures

On Wednesday, April 8, the University launched an online lecture "Modern Assessment Methods of Students in e-learning" which covered the following topics:

Defining assessment in e-learning

Features of e-assessment and its challenges

Alternatives for tests and examples of practical alternative methods

Ways to choose the appropriate assessment

Overcoming those challenges